First Citizens' Federal Credit Union Mourns the Passing of George Custodio, Chief of Finance, Risk & Lending Operations

FAIRHAVEN, MA – July 21, 2017 – First Citizens' Federal Credit Union is saddened to announce today that George Custodio, the credit union's Chief of Finance, Risk and Lending Officer, passed away suddenly on July 19, 2017 after a brief illness. He was 57 years old.

"It is with profound sadness that we announce the passing of our friend and colleague, George Custodio," said Peter Muise, President & CEO. "He was, first and foremost, a generous, selfless human being, that everyone loved and wanted to be around. George considered everyone in the First Citizens' organization an extension of his family. His energetic, vibrant personality and sense of humor will be deeply missed."

George became part of the First Citizens' family in 2009 and became a beloved friend and colleague of many in the industry. In his recent role, he was responsible for all accounting and financial reporting functions along with all our risk and lending operations. He was a dedicated community volunteer and has coached youth soccer and baseball in the past. Most recently he volunteered his time as part of the financial advisory committee for Your Theatre, Inc.

George leaves behind his loving wife, two children and granddaughter. On behalf of our board of directors, management team and employees, we mourn his loss and extend our deepest sympathies to his family.
