First Citizens' Federal Credit Union Celebrates Groundbreaking for New Hanover, MA Branch Location

July 18, 2019 - Fairhaven, MA- First Citizens' Federal Credit Union announced plans to build a full service branch located on 1095 Washington Street in Hanover, MA during a ceremonial groundbreaking event Monday morning. The opening, scheduled for the Fall of 2019, will be First Citizens' twelfth full service branch and first in Hanover. The design will feature a modern, open concept and include a pod-style teller line. The new branch will offer an Interactive Teller Machine and a 24-hour drive-up ATM. The opening of the Hanover location is a reflection of the Credit Union's strong business growth and on-going commitment to providing members with quality banking products and first-class customer service.

"We are absolutely thrilled to break ground with building and expanding in the town of Hanover," said Peter Muise, First Citizens' President and CEO. "We look forward to serving the wonderful people of Hanover and the surrounding communities," added the CEO.
